

HOTELS

- 1 Antigua Rentals
- 2 Casa Concepción
- 3 Casa Encantada
- 4 Casa Florencia
- 5 Casa Madeleine
- 6 Casa Orquídeas
- 7 Casa Ovalle
- 8 Casa Santo Domingo
- 9 Cissus Boutique Hotel
- 10 Convento Santa Catalina
- 11 D'Leyenda Hotel
- 12 El Convento Boutique Hotel
- 13 El Mesón de María
- 14 Hostel Las Marías
- 15 La Catedral
- 16 La Villa Serena
- 17 Lions Inn Antigua
- 18 Lo de Bernal
- 19 Los Pasos
- 20 Marqués de Antigua
- 21 Mesón Panza Verde
- 22 Palacio de Doña Beatriz
- 23 Palacio de Doña Leonor
- 24 Posada del Ángel
- 25 Posada El Antaño
- 26 Posada El Ensueño
- 27 The Cloister

RESTAURANTS

- 1 Bistrot Cinq
- 2 Café 2000
- 3 Café Condessa
- 4 Café de la Rua
- 5 Café Ópera
- 6 Café Oris
- 7 Cazador Italiano
- 13 Cuevita de Los Urquizú
- 11 La Fonda de la Calle Real
- 8 Las Palmas Restaurant
- 9 Panza Verde Fine Cuisine
- 10 Siitz Restaurant
- 12 Sobremesa

OTHERS

- 1 Schools: Spanish Academy Ant.
- 2 Schools: Spanish Language Center
- 3 Services: El Reposo Spa
- 4 Services: Clínicas Ovalle
- 5 Services: Dexden Custom Home
- 6 Services: Yogantigua
- 7 Stores: Antigua Tabaco Compañía
- 8 Stores: Differenza Art Shop
- 9 Stores: La Casa del Jade
- 10 Stores: El Telar (Loom Tree)
- 11 Stores: Panza Verde Gallery
- 12 Stores: Global Surf
- 12 Travel: Antigua Tours
- 13 Travel: Live Guate

INTERESTING PLACES

- A Santiago Museum (Old weapons): In this museum you can see the weapons Spaniards and indigenous people used during the conquest.
- B Antique Books Museum: Here you will find on display a replica of the first printing press in Guatemala which was operated for the first time in 1660.
- C Colonial Art Museum: Located in the building which housed the San Carlos University during the colonial period. Here you may admire paintings and sculptures of that era.
- D Cathedral: According to some historians somewhere in the crypts lie the remains of the conqueror of Guatemala, Don Pedro de Alvarado.
- E Santa Clara Convent: This convent was originally founded in 1699 by a group of nuns from the Mexican city of Puebla, known as "Monjas Clarisas".
- F San Francisco Church & Convent: The tomb of the Saint Hermano Pedro de San José de Betancourt is located here. He was a Franciscan friar who in the late seventeenth century.
- G Capuchinas convent: This was the last convent of nuns founded in the city. You can find a collection of carved colonial religious images and paintings.
- H La Merced church & Convent: This site has an exquisite baroque style—façade. In the convent's courtyard you will also see one of the largest and most beautiful fountains in the city.
- I San Jerónimo Cloister: Its constructions were finished in 1759. Soon afterwards the Spanish authorities established the Royal Customs Office in this building.
- J Local Market: The busiest days are Monday, Thursday and Saturday. Here you may find a wide selection of fruits & vegetables. You can also admire the colorful typical costumes of the people of the surrounding villages.
- K Handicraft market: This interesting marketplace offers crafts made by authentic artisans from La Antigua.
- L Popenoe House: Seventeenth Century colonial house and museum
- M House of the Antique Costume: Offers a wide selection of typical costumes from different regions of the country.
- N Museums promenade: Cultural route through six museums installed in what was the church and Convent of Santo Domingo and the Santo Tomás de Aquino College.
- O Cultural Center El Sitio: Promotes art and culture (music, theatre, dance, painting, sculpture, literature and film, as well as other activities).
- P La Recolectión Convent: This beautiful colonial monument finished in 1715, now in ruins, housed the religious order of the "Frailes Recolectos".
- Q Cultural Center AECI: It has four cloisters with 18 wings, four exhibit halls, a corridor, kitchen and library—documentation center.
- V Fire department: 7832.0234.
- W Tourism Police: 7832.0532 / 33 / 47.
- X National Police: 7832.0251.
- Y City Hall: 7720.7670.
- Z Tourist Assistance: 1500.

THINGS TO DO - RESERVE WITH US NOW

Pacaya Thermal waters and Spa Tour: Hike the active Pacaya Volcano and then relax at the Santa Teresita thermal pacaya waters and Spa.

Coffee Tour: Learn how coffee is grown and the cultivation on the plantation while enjoying a cup of coffee

Texan Mule Rides: A ride through a natural and secure atmosphere through mountainous trails.

Canopy Tour: Live an extreme adventure through the forest in Antigua

Mirador Monte Los Olivos Tour: Experienced on a Unimog vehicle conditioned for transporting tourists.

Cultural walking tour of La Antigua Guatemala: This tour is known as the best tour in this city. Walk around Antigua and get ready to be amazed.

Bird watching tour: The pure and natural atmosphere between the dense vegetation of this natural forest you will a myriad of birds

Professional Cupping Session: If you are a coffee lover, you can miss this chance.

1 or 2 days tour to Tikal, the ancient mayan city, leaving from Antigua Guatemala

Maximon Tour: Visit the local deity and experience a real mayan ceremony.

